

Pets In the Park – Silent Auction

The Edmonton Humane Society (EHS) is proudly celebrating the 30th year anniversary of the Pets in the Park festival which brings together people and their pets to celebrate the incredible impact they have on our lives, while giving back to animals in need. For EHS, our goals are simple:

- Engage with our community and supporters
- Increase fundraising revenue over previous years
- Provide opportunities for staff & volunteer engagement

Volunteers will be assisting by representing the EHS brand by engaging with attendees at the Silent Auction Tent. Volunteers will manage the bids to ensure information is being entered correctly on each sheet and is legible. Volunteers will manage the silent auction items and ensure their safe keeping and will answer questions relating to the items or the auction. Additionally, volunteers will assist with the check-out process.

Responsibilities & Tasks:

- Greeting attendees and answering any questions
- Ensuring that the bids being recorded on the sheet are complete and legible
- Ensuring the safety of the items in the Silent Auction
- Assisting with the checkout process when the auction closes

Skills:

- Excellent communication skills (English language) – ability to maintain a conversation comfortably
- Knowledge of EHS – mission, values, programs, and services
